Technology in Construction Roadshow

Hosted by Rob McKinney
"The Construction App Guru"

Friday, March 18, 2016
7:30 a.m. registration & breakfast, program 8:00 – 11:00 am

NYU Tandon School of Engineering
6 MetroTech Center, Brooklyn, New York 11201

AGC Members: $45 per person - Non Members: $65 per person

Rob McKinney, the Construction App Guru (ConAppGuru) will speak on the state of mobile devices and how apps are being used on construction sites to improve workflow such as plan mark ups and capturing progress photos. He will demonstrate apps that can be used for workflow improvement. The ConAppGuru will explain the process of moving your company from paper to digital and how to overcome the challenges of getting everyone on board. There will be time for Q&A after his presentation.

Rob McKinney is a Consultant with JBKnowledge. He currently serves as Chairman of the AGC Georgia IT Forum Steering Committee, has presented at several technology in construction events, and is a regular contributor to articles regarding technology (Constructech, The Construction Specifier, AEC Magazine, Engineering Industry News, and more).

After Rob's presentation, there will be a vendor showcase where various apps, equipment and software solution vendors will be available to demonstrate their products and show you how to utilize them in your business. Vendors, please see page 2 of flyer.
