AGC NYS Education & Training

Members Only: Future Construction Leaders

Involves mid-career professionals who have been chosen by their companies as future leaders in the industry. The students meet four times during the year to learn from industry experts on topics that normally would take attendees years of on-the-job training.

Continuing the education of your staff is a prime focus of contractors in the fast-moving, ever changing field of construction. Trained staff is critical to the advancement of your firm. What They Are Saying

"If it were not for the relationships developed through the AGC NYS, I can say with certainty that Advance Testing would not be in the position it is today. My philosophy is that what you get out of an organization is dependent on what you are willing to put into it. By getting involved with the group many years ago and furthermore, by staying involved during difficult times, we have been able to grow as a company with the support of their outstanding member community."

-- Jimmy Smith, Advance Testing
