Brandon Anderson, VP of Safety, AGC of Missouri

The construction industry is a one of the best industries out there, with some of the best people making up the workforce. Although very rewarding, it has been taboo to talk about what is responsible for killing, such great people in our workforce.

As a male dominated industry, historically, there has been a stigma that we can't talk about what's troubling us, our feelings, etc... AGCMO has been working to break that STIGMA since 2019, through education, courage and compassion. Our focus has been identifying warning signs, how to listen and respond, how to start a conversation to instill HOPE, that you are not alone and identify resources available to the work force.

Beer Tasting Social .....	2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. Mountainview Terrace

Dueling Pianos - Dueling Pianos is ready for a great performance for us on Friday evening. Country, Hip-Hop, Classic Rock, Oldies, New Orleans R&B... This is a show for all generations. A high-energy, request driven, rock and roll singalong experience. Known for their inclusive entertainment and high energy performances we know you will enjoy.
